

Love

51 1 2

Chapter 1 by Feyre Archeron

Love can be over rated. Don't get too caught up in love, it's nothing special until you find that someone special at the age of 20-30. It's all right to have a boyfriend when your in 6th or 7th grade.

Just don't get to stressed out by boys who say they love you, but then for you to find out weeks later that they are cheating on you. That's not fun. You won't understand love until yo r a lot older.

Take it from a girl who had her heart broken by several boys who she thought they loved her. It took me 7 months just to get over my first relationship that was taken seriously. We dated for 2 and a half years.

That's a long time, just don't get your head centered around boys. They are nothing but trouble. All they want is your body, and don't give it to them, especially at the age of 12-13.

Chapter 2 by Alyssa

Now, honestly, I can say that that is a complete lie. Love is different for everyone. Some people are always attracted to the wrong people. The men who want only your body. Not me.

waiting until marriage. Now, don't look at me as if I am 12 because, honestly, it's the more mature thing to do.

The love of my life isn't with me now, and you want to know why? Because he's serving the Lord. He's gone for 2 years and I'm happy for him. I'll be gone for a year and a half soon enough. And I know that I would wait forever for him, and I know that he would wait forever for me.

You can stand in front of me and look me in the eye, and tell me that if we wait for each other for 3 and a half years, that we aren't meant to be.

No, I'm not in my 20's or 30's, but yes, I know that I will marry this boy.
